

Press Release

An one day National Seminar on ‘Intellectual Property Rights’ was organized by the Raksha Shakti University on 12th May 2018. The key objective of this seminar was to sensitize the participants on the basics of Intellectual Property Rights (IPR) and its role in enhancing the quality of research and innovation output including incubation and commercialization.

The Seminar began with Prof. Priyanka Sharma, Director Institute of Research & Development (IR&D) & Convener welcoming all the participants and highlighting the need for setting up an IPR Cell at the University.

The Chief Guest of the Seminar, Shri Vikas Sahay, IPS, Director General of Raksha Shakti University delivered the Inaugural Address and exhorted the participants to become familiar with the intricacies of IPR and make the most of this event. He formally launched the IPR Cell of Raksha Shakti University by pressing the remote. He also announced the launch of Post Graduate Diploma in Cyber Laws and Intellectual Property Rights from the academic session 2018-19 by the University.

Dr. Akshat Mehta, Associate Professor & Head, Department of Police Administration and Organizing Secretary introduced the purpose of the Seminar and introduced the speakers.

The eminent speakers in the Seminar were: Shri B.P. Singh, Joint Controller of Patents and Designs, New Delhi; Dr. Nilesh Shah, Advocate, Former Senate member MSU, Baroda; and Dr. Manish Rachchh, Director, (R&D) & CEO, Accuprec Research Labs Pvt Ltd, Ahmedabad.

The eminent speakers provided an overview about various facets of IPR including patents, designs, copyrights, trademarks, biodiversity, geographical indications, etc. along with the growing horizons of the same and enforcement dimensions.

Dr. Sumit Kumar Choudhary, Registrar, Raksha Shakti University proposed Vote of Thanks and hoped that the participants would continue to take such active part in academic and research activities of the University in future as well.

More than 80 participants from several Universities, Academic and Research Institutes, Police Officers from different districts, Dy.S.P. Trainees from Gujarat Police Academy Karai and professionals took part in the Seminar.